For a random singly- or bi-infinite Jacobi matrix $A$, we give upper and lower bounds on the spectrum and present a version of the finite section method for the approximate solution of equations $Ax = b$ that is stable as soon as $A$ is invertible.

Minisymposium No. 12