

Transportation & Accommodation

Travel by train:

Lüneburg is located on the main train line between Hannover and Hamburg. You can travel to Lüneburg from Hamburg every half hour and from Hannover once an hour. Lüneburg is within the commuter zone for the Hamburg rapid transit system (HVV).

Departing from the Lüneburg train station, two different buses travel to the main campus. They each leave every 15 minutes. You may take either bus 5011 (towards Rettmer/Häcklingen) or bus 5012 (towards Bockelsberg). You need to get off the bus at the Blücherstraße stop. Bus line 5001 (towards Leuphana) serves the campus once per hour.

Travel by car:

- Arriving from the South: Take the federal highway A7 Hannover-Hamburg until you reach the Soltau-Ost exit, from there take state highway 209 to Lüneburg. Then follow the road signs to the university campus.
- Arriving from the North: Take the A39 Hamburg-Lüneburg and then go onto the eastern by-pass until the Lüneburg-Häcklingen exit. Then follow the road signs to the university campus.
- Parking: Please obey the parking regulations on campus. Please park only in official designated parking locations. Illegally parked cars will be towed.

Travel by plane:

The nearest airports to Lüneburg are located in Hamburg (70 km), Hannover (120 km), and Bremen (150 km). All three airports can be easily reached by public transportation.

- Hamburg: urban trains (S-Bahn) run between Hamburg airport and Hamburg main station every 10 minutes; the ride takes about 25 minutes.
- Hannover: urban trains (S-Bahn) run between Hannover airport and Hannover main station every 30 minutes; the ride takes about 20 minutes.
- Bremen: the tram line 6 leaves for Bremen main station every 10 minutes.
