

Colloquium on Combinatorics
Ilmenau
November 6 and 7, 2015

Dear colleagues:

In the series of conferences Colloquium on Combinatorics we cordially invite you to attend the 34. Meeting. It takes place at Technische Universität Ilmenau, Institute for Mathematics (<http://www.tu-ilmenau.de/en/math/>).

The Colloquium on Combinatorics is a forum that brings together young researchers and well established scientists. The colloquium will cover all parts from Combinatorics and Discrete Mathematics in a broad sense, including combinatorial aspects in Algebra, Geometry, Optimization and Computer Science.

There will be invited lectures and parallel sessions with short contributions of 20 minutes. We will start in the morning of November 6 and will finish in the afternoon at around 4 p.m. on November 7. There will be a come together on November 5, 6 p.m. at Hotel Tanne (<http://www.hotel-tanne-thuringen.de>) (restaurant) where you can also get your conference documents.

The conference dinner will be on November 6, 7 p.m. at Hotel Tanne.

If you are interested to attend the meeting, you may simply use this registration form that you may download from the conference webpage

<http://www.tu-ilmenau.de/kolkom2015>

and send it back to Ilmenau (mail, fax, or email)
