Academic Preparation at the TU Ilmenau takes place in the Academic Preparation Course (APC).

Language preparation starts with a language placement test on the specified day.

It is essential to note the following:

- timely electronic registration for the test and

- personal participation in the test.

The test assesses your language skills so that you can join a class during the subsequent language training.

The subject-specific study preparation immediately follows the linguistic study preparation.

You can view your concrete conditions for the subject-related study preparation (subjects or modules to be completed with examinations or pass-fail certificates) under the above-mentioned link (Your obligations) after registration at the applicant portal.

To prepare for your studies at the TU Ilmenau, you will have to sign a study agreement with the Central Institute for Education (ZIB) of the TU Ilmenau immediately after your arrival. Your learning progress will be evaluated semester by semester together with you.

Preparation at a Studienkolleg does not take place in Ilmenau, but at the location of a state-recognised Studienkolleg in Germany, which you can choose yourself.

The aim is to achieve the higher education entrance qualification by passing the examination to determine the higher education entrance qualification.

Depending on the chosen study programme, you take part in the W course for economics or the T course for technical subjects.

Each Studienkolleg offers admission tests on fixed dates, which are usually published in advance on the Studienkolleg's website. Please inform yourself about the dates and take the entrance test of the Studienkolleg of your choice.

Academic preparation in Germany - Independent Organisation

Language: Reaching university-level language proficiency

Location: Any language school in Germany

e.g. Volkshochschulen

Academic: Passing the Master aptitude test without conditions

Location: Ilmenau - The Examination Office of a TU Ilmenau Department
